The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation NumberNature of Noncompliance

#1

Palmer was ordered to pay his outstanding fine balance of $900.00, at a rate of $30 per month. To date, Palmer has been unable to make any payments.

As the Court may recall, the offender appeared in Court for a violation hearing on February 4, 2008. His supervision was revoked and he was ordered to serve 1 day in prison, followed by 3 years supervised release.

A special condition of his supervision required him to enter a long term residential treatment program for a period of 14 months.

The offender has complied as directed and is currently participating in treatment at the Prospect House. At this time, he remains unemployed, however, he is in the phase of the program, which allows him to leave the facility daily in search of employment. At this time, he continues to do well in the program.

U.S. Probation Officer Action: Based on the offender's current unemployed status, it is recommended that this condition be deferred, until such time that he obtains stable employment and is able to meet this obligation. Additionally, Palmer will be directed to sign a Consent Agreement for the outstanding fine balance of $900.00. It is believed he will comply with this condition once he obtains full time employment.

Approved,
